Gignac Architects is seeking a creative Architect/Architectural Intern to play a key role in diverse and exciting projects in the South Texas area. Multiple positions available. This position requires great interpersonal abilities and a thorough knowledge of architectural design and construction. Experience with Revit/AutoCAD, Word, Excel is required. While relocation is preferred, it may not be required as working remotely is an option that will be considered.

Responsibilities

- Work collaboratively with project teams on a wide variety of projects.
- Creation of presentation drawings/graphics.
- Utilizing Revit/AutoCAD software assist in development of construction documents.

Qualifications

- Bachelor’s/Master’s Degree in Architecture.
- Texas Board of Architectural Examiners license preferred but not a requirement.
- 5 years’ experience as an architect/designer.
- Exceptional creativity and design skills.
- Strong leadership, organizational, communication and relationship management skills.
- A strong commitment to quality and attention to detail.
- Experience in Revit, AutoCAD, SketchUp, and Photoshop (or other equal programs).
- 3D rendering and visualization skills a plus.
- Knowledge of building codes, standards and building structures.
- Thorough understanding of how buildings are constructed with the ability to create technical details and documents.

Additional benefits:

- Competitive salaries with opportunities for growth.
- 2 weeks paid sick/personal days and paid holidays; Employee health, dental and life insurance, Profit sharing plan.

Send resumes and project portfolio samples to rgarza@gignac-associates.com and nickgignac@gignac-associates.com

Gignac Architects is a medium sized firm with offices in Corpus Christi, and McAllen, Texas. Please visit our website at www.gignacarchitects.com to see our work.